Establishment of Four Organization Investigative Commission

- Approach to a Healthy Game Play -

The four organizations, Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association(CESA), Japan Online Game Association(JOGA), Mobile Content Forum(MCF), and Japan esports Union(JeSU) established Four Organization Investigative Commission to investigate the situation and to enlighten healthy ways to play video games based on recent reports that indulging in video games are disrupting daily life.

The four organizations have been cooperating to create a healthy environment to play video games through guidelines outlining protection of minors and network game management policies and will enforce the activities furthermore.

With the cooperation of experts from various fields, the Investigative Commission will contribute to the healthy growth of the video game industry through research of the effects caused by playing video games and enlighten the ways to enjoy games.
